The accompanying federal income tax return does NOT constitute a financial statement. We have not audited, reviewed or compiled the accompanying income tax return and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on it.

An income tax return is not intended to constitute financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Dear Christopher:

Enclosed is the 2013 Exempt Organization return, as follows...

2013 Form 990

2013 IRS E-File Signature Authorization for an Exempt
Organization (Form 8879-EO)

Please review the return for completeness and accuracy.

In addition, the enclosed CD includes a public disclosure copy of the Form 990. An exempt organization is required to have a copy of its current year Form 990 and two prior year returns available for public inspection. If the return includes a Schedule of Contributors (Schedule B), we have removed the names and addresses of contributors from this return as this information is not open to public inspection. You should sign this copy of the return and keep it available at your primary office location.

We have prepared the return from information you furnished us without verification. Upon examination of the return by tax authorities, requests may be made for underlying data. We therefore recommend that you preserve all records which you may be called upon to produce in connection with such possible examinations.

According to the Colorado Charitable Solicitation Act the state of Colorado requires every charitable organization that solicits contributions, has contributions solicited on its behalf in Colorado, or participates in a charitable sales promotion to register annually with the Secretary of State. Colorado also requires charitable organizations to file a financial report annually. This report must be filed electronically on or before the 15th day of the fifth calendar month after the close of each fiscal year in which the charitable organization solicited in this state. A failure to comply with the provisions of the Colorado Charitable Solicitations Act will result in remedies or penalties, or both. In addition to any other applicable penalty, the Secretary of State may deny, suspend, or revoke the registration of any charitable organization that makes a false statement or omits material information in any registration. The filing of the registration and financial report is a legal matter and as such is not within the scope of Eide Bailly's accounting and tax practice. Eide Bailly LLP cannot, and will not, be responsible for making sure that you have fully complied with Colorado's or other jurisdictions' legal filing requirements. In the past we may have completed one or more of these forms for you in the process of preparing your income tax returns. We have not completed any of these filings for you this year. You will be responsible for completing any current or future required filings. The Colorado Secretary of State has a website where filings can be done on-line. The website is located at: <https://www.sos.state.co.us/pubs/charities/charitable.htm>. Legal counsel should be contacted if you are unsure of what filing requirements you may have.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions concerning the tax return.

Sincerely,

Kyle Fritch, CPA
